MOOD:  bouncy

This is why we recommend you wear a helmet while belaying as well as while climbing:

That bruise is from Friday. It was caused by a rock about the size of a flash drive.

No, it wasn't the Platypus that kicked it down on me, either.

It looks much worse in person, and it's still developing--it didn't even show up until yesterday.

Yeah, it hurt. No, I didn't drop him on his head.

But hey, we got a day and a half of this one! And I got to sleep in for two whole mornings. Too bad

I had to take off my wedding ring. My finger is swelling in sympathy.

No, it's just a bruise.

Ow.

Makes my (knocked over an iron tent stake by a small boy running through the festival) shin bruise look like nothing at all.

Well, technically speaking, I was belaying without you. I'm in VERMONT. And it turns out one of T.'s cousins top-ropes a little.

And you haven't been to the gym or the cliffs since Friday?

...I didn't say I wasn't climbing without you...

But you're in Vermont! I want to be climbing in Vermont!

Or Yosemite. I bet life is perfect in Yosemite right now.

Goose/gander, sweetie.

Where are you hiking, when you go hiking? Zion? You could go to Yosemite instead....
